

NEWSLETTER 10– June 2016

This newsletter, the last for this school year, is a compilation of items from our Sixth class students.

Memories since Junior Infants

I remember Mr. King always saying he was a genius.

I remember the song Mrs Vaughan taught us when she was visiting in Junior Infants: Birdie in the sky.

Birdie, birdie in the sky

Why did you do that in my eye

I sure am glad that cows can't fly

Or lese there would be something bigger in my eye!

I REMEMBER THE TIME MS. STAUNTON COULDN'T REACH THE CLOCK: WE WERE IN SECOND CLASS AND I REMEMBER THAT MS. STAUNTON WASN'T TALL ENOUGH TO REACH THE CLASSROOM CLOCK AND WAS SCARED TO STAND ON THE TABLE IN CASE SHE FELL.

I remember sitting down beside Tom. He asked "Who's he?" and Lorcan said "that's the new kid Scott!"

I remember getting the sticker with my name on it.

I LOVED THE SPORTS DAYS.

I remember kicking my shoe over the fence.

I remember starting the "Harry Potter" series in 5th class and finishing it in 6th class.

I remember getting in trouble for pulling up my skirt!

I remember getting in trouble for fighting over who's book got on top of the pile!

I really enjoyed our trip to Killary to do Laser Tag and the bog challenge as part of the After School Club.

I remember getting sparkly pencils from Mr King in 2nd class.

I remember trying not to get hit by the 'Boy Train' at break time.

I remember when Mrs Salmon took Lorcan's shoe off him.

I REMEMBER WHEN WE SANG THE CHORUS OF THE FIELDS OF ATHENRY ABOUT 50 TIMES ON THE BUS BACK FROM ACHILL.

I remember Letterland in Junior and Senior Infants.

Best memories: Ms Staunton's Oreo cupcakes, Pancake Tuesdays, Arts Weeks, free lunches, winning the Write A Book Competition, Dancing to the Gummy Bear Song with Maire and Second class

I remember our first play: The Wizard of Oz" in 4th class

I remember when Darragh got glasses.

I remember Mrs O'Malley in 2nd class: she would give prizes for the table with the most stars. The tables had names: Monkeys, Koalas, Parrots and Pandas.

Best moments in 6th class

Our school tour to Achill. The surfing was brilliant!

I loved going on the hurling game and all the other sports outings.

I am proud to have been the captain of the A Team.

I really enjoyed the Olympic Handball.

I enjoyed hanging out with my friends.

Achievements

We took part in lots of competitions: Olympic Handball, Gaelic, Hurling, West Coast Soccer.

We all wrote books and stories for the Write a Book competition and four of us got awards for it!

One of my achievements is to have written a poem

I wrote a book and I got better at writing.

I'm so glad I did my schooling in Scoil Mhuire Clifden because....

It was really fun

All my cousins are there!

There were a lot of sporting trips and fun school tours.

Better school tours and education for all the learning and friends and trips and the loyal and kind staff.

I am really glad I came to this school

All the teachers are really kind

I MET LOTS OF FRIENDS
